 The Pioneer Women's Club functions as a complementary group within The Brown County Historical Society. They meet every Wednesday at the Brown County History Center, 90 East Gould Street, from 9:00 a.m. to noon.
 Each Wednesday the PWC has a different focus:

- » First Wednesday — Members work on their personal projects
- » Second Wednesday — A program/ lesson is presented
- » Third Wednesday — Members work on club projects to place in the gift shop.
- » Fourth Wednesday — The PWC business meeting is held at 10:00 a.m. followed by dessert.

The Pioneer Women practice and teach the domestic frontier crafts: sewing, quilting, weaving, knitting, embroidery, spinning, etc. They work to keep traditions alive through their crafts and volunteer efforts that raise money to support the Historical Society. Please contact the PWC for more information about our group. We welcome new members.

We offer a multitude of programs that are designed to address the wide range of emotional, behavioral, psychological and addiction issues that affect the individuals in our care. We have also created a number of educational outreach initiatives designed to provide young and old alike with a better understanding of behavioral health care. Most importantly, Centerstone exists to help individuals from all walks of life in need. We can help you or your loved one get the care they need to live a fuller, happier life.

Centerstone follows the philosophies of Recovery and Resiliency in every aspect of our care planning. We work with clients and their families at all stages of life, providing outpatient therapy and counseling, addiction treatment, prevention services, intensive in-home treatment, school-based mental health services, family therapy, case management and much more. Centerstone is committed to providing professional, compassionate services that improve the quality of life for those who choose us for care. We employ a staff of over 3,800 professionals, including psychiatrists, nurses, psychologists, master's-level clinicians, social workers, community support specialists, family support specialists, recovery coaches, therapists, finance specialists, information systems technicians, administrative and support staff.

The childcare voucher program helps pay the cost of childcare for low-income working parents or those in full-time educational or training programs. The parent selects the provider. Child care can be in the home or a daycare facility or can be provided by a relative or friend who is a legally licensed exempt provider. Payment is made directly to the provider at an established market rate. The parent must pay the difference between the provider's charges and the market rate. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday; 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday; and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday.

 The Pioneer Women's Club functions as a complementary group within

The Brown County Historical Society. They meet every Wednesday at the Brown County History Center, 90 East Gould Street, from 9:00 a.m. – noon. Each Wednesday the PWC has a different focus:

- » First Wednesday — Members work on their personal projects
- » Second Wednesday — A program/lesson is presented
- » Third Wednesday — Members work on club projects to place in the gift shop.
- » Fourth Wednesday — The PWC business meeting is held at 10:00 a.m. — followed by dessert.

The Pioneer Women practice and teach the domestic frontier crafts: sewing, quilting, weaving, knitting, embroidery, spinning etc. They work to keep traditions alive through their crafts and volunteer efforts that raise money to support the Historical Society. Please contact the PWC for more information about our group. We welcome new members.

You have the right to vote in Indiana if:
 You are a U.S. citizen and resident of Indiana; AND
 You are at least 18 years old on or before the election; AND
 You are not currently in prison, convicted of a crime; AND You've lived in your voting precinct at least 30 days before the election; AND
 You are registered to vote (before the deadline).

Register to vote BY DEADLINE one month before the primary or general election:

Register online at indianavoters.com; OR Call 1-866-IN-1-VOTE (1-866-461-8683) with the Indiana Secretary of State's office; OR

Register in person at the Brown County Clerk's Office in the courthouse; OR Register at the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) if conducting a transaction such as getting a driver's license, permit or identification card.

Check your registration one month before every election by the registration deadline:

Enter your information at indianavoters.com; OR Call the Brown County Clerk's Office at 812-988-5510; OR Call the Indiana Secretary of State's Office at 1-866-461-8683.

When checking your voter registration:

- » Make sure your mailing address is correct
- » Make sure your registration is current one month before each election
- » Update changes if you have moved or changed your name
